

An Evening with BC Author Andreas Schroeder

April 14, 7pm

Andreas will be reading from Renovating Heaven, his recently published autobiographical novel about growing up in the Fraser Valley during the 1950s and early 60s. The novel was nominated for the Ethel Wilson Fiction Prize, as well as the American Storytelling Award. After the reading, the author will be happy to answer questions from the audience.

A resident of Mission for 27 years, and now residing on the Sunshine Coast, Andreas currently holds the Rogers Communication Chair in Creative Non-Fiction at UBC. Andreas' 43 year writing career includes works of fiction, non-fiction, radio drama, poetry, translations, journalism and literary criticism.

Please contact the library to register for this program.

Some of Schroeder's Works include:

Fiction:

Dust Ship Glory

Non-Fiction:

The Eleventh Commandment
The Mennonites in Canada
Scams, Scandals and Skullduggery
Fakes, Frauds & Flimflamery