ACCLAIMED AUTHOR PATRICK TAYLOR TO READ AT FVRL
Writer of the famed Irish Country series to visit!

Abbotsford, BC – Fraser Valley Regional Library (FVRL) is delighted to present acclaimed author Patrick Taylor as he reads from his Irish Country series. Take a journey to the little Irish village of Ballybucklebo, the lush setting for Taylor's timeless tales about Dr. Barry Laverty, a charming and dedicated physician to a small town of quirky townsfolk. Set in the 1960s, the entertaining series is full of likable characters and engaging dialogue and has made the best seller lists in the New York Times, USA Today and the Globe and Mail.

Taylor will be reading at four library events which are free to attend but registration is required:

- Monday, April 4, 7 p.m. at Terry Fox Library, (604) 927-7995
- Tuesday, April 5, 7 p.m. at Walnut Grove Library, (604) 882-0410
- Wednesday, April 6, 2 p.m. at Clearbrook Library, (604) 859-7814
- Thursday, April 7, 7 p.m. at Maple Ridge Public Library, (604) 467-7417

Taylor is more than just an author; he is a doctor, a distinguished medical researcher in the field of human infertility, an off-shore sailor and model boat-builder. He currently divides his time between his homes in Ireland and Salt Spring Island. For more information or to register for a reading, please call or visit one of the host libraries. FVRL never closes; connect online 24/7 at www.fvrl.ca.

About Fraser Valley Regional Library

Fraser Valley Regional Library is the largest public library system in British Columbia, with 24 community libraries serving over 680,000 people in its service area. Established in 1930, it is funded with taxes raised in the communities it serves, plus a Government of BC operating grant. The governing Board consists of elected officials representing 15 member municipalities and regional districts. With its mission "to connect people to the world of information and ideas," FVRL plays a prominent role in the communities throughout the Fraser Valley.
