For Immediate Release

COOL OFF THIS SUMMER WITH SOME GOOD READS Join one of the hot summer reading clubs at Fraser Valley Regional Library!

Abbotsford, BC – From preschoolers to adults, Fraser Valley Regional Library (FVRL) has a reading club for everyone. All of the clubs are free to join and participants can win fantastic prizes! Registration for the clubs begins mid-June. FVRL will be hosting fun free programs, contests and displays all summer long.

Preschoolers and kids in grades kindergarten to six are invited to “Savour Each Word” and gobble up some great reading this summer by joining the annual Kids Summer Reading Club. Participants will get a reading record, bookmark and weekly stickers. Kids who complete their reading record will be eligible to receive either a ribbon (preschoolers) or a medal (grades K-6).

Teens in grades seven to 12 can discover just how tasty a good book can be as they “Savour Each Word” when they join the Teen Summer Reading Club. Teens who join will receive a reading record and bookmark. For every seven days that a teen reads, they will receive an entry ballot to win one of several amazing FVRL prizes, including laptop computers, digital camcorders and eBook readers.

Not to be left out, adults are once again being offered their very own club. This year, adults can “Read for Luck”. They will receive a reading record to track their reading, fortune cookies stuffed with literacy quotations, and best of all, the chance to win great prizes.

For more Summer Reading Club information, please visit www.fvrl.ca or your closest FVRL location. Connect with FVRL online 24/7 through Facebook, Twitter and YouTube.
