FVRL TO PARTICIPATE IN LIBRARY DAY AT THE FAIR AT THE PNE
On August 22, show your FVRL library card and get into the Fair for $6.

Abbotsford, B.C. – Fraser Valley Regional Library (FVRL) is excited to participate in Library Day at the Fair at the PNE. Thanks to a partnership between the Fair, Tim Hortons, Raise a Reader, and Public Library InterLINK, teen and adult fair-goers can get into the Fair for only $6 on Wednesday, August 22 by presenting their FVRL library card! The Fair is always free for children under the age of 13.

FVRL will participate alongside InterLINK member libraries in onsite activities on Library Day. Once in the Fair, attendees can stop by the Library Zone, near Toon City and the Popnology Exhibit, for some fun and FREE activities with staff from various BC libraries. FVRL will feature its Library Live and On Tour (LiLi) vehicle, the peddle-powered Book Chariot, and Playground items including green screens, KEVA Planks, Makey Makey, Sphero SPRK+, telescopes, ukuleles, and virtual reality. There will also be impromptu storytimes, maker activities, games, and more!

"The Library Zone at the Fair is full of fun activities that families can expect when they visit their local library - there will be something for every age," says Public Library InterLINK Executive Director Michael Burris.

Presenting a BC public library card grants one cardholder admission for $6 (one card must be shown per person to receive the discount and supplementary ID is recommended). Don't have an FVRL card yet? Visit anyone of our 25 locations to get your free card today! Visit www.fvrl.ca for more information.
