FVRL TO PARTICIPATE IN LIBRARY DAY AT THE PNE FAIR
On August 21, show your FVRL library card and get into the Fair for $6.

Abbotsford, B.C. – Fraser Valley Regional Library (FVRL) is excited to participate in Library Day at the PNE Fair. Thanks to a partnership between PNE Fair and Public Library InterLINK, teen and adult fair-goers can get into the Fair for only $6 on Wednesday, August 21 by presenting their FVRL library card! The Fair is free for children under the age of 5; entrance is $5 for kids 6 to 13.

FVRL will participate alongside InterLINK member libraries in onsite activities on Library Day. Once in the Fair, attendees can stop by the Library Zone, near Toon City and the Snap Happy: A Do-It-Your-Selfie Experience Exhibit, for some fun and FREE activities with staff from various BC libraries. FVRL will feature its Library Live and On Tour (LiLi) vehicle, the pedal-powered Book Chariot, and Playground items including green screens, programmable robots, telescopes, Magformers, KEVA Planks and birdwatching backpacks. There will also be maker activities, games, prizes and more!

"InterLINK, along with its member libraries, is thrilled to participate in the third Library Day at the PNE Fair. Like the PNE Fair, our public libraries are a family favourite and an integral part of British Columbians' summers," says Public Library InterLINK Executive Director Michael Burris.

Presenting a BC public library card grants one cardholder admission for $6 (one card must be shown per person to receive the discount, and supplementary ID is recommended). Don't have an FVRL card yet? Visit any one of our 25 locations to get your free card today! Visit www.fvrl.ca for more information.
