ANNOUNCING THE TSAWWASSEN POP-UP LIBRARY

Tsawwassen Library remains closed for restoration due to car accident.

Abbotsford, B.C. – We've decided to get creative while restoration on the Tsawwassen Library continues, and are excited to announce a Pop-Up Library at the Tsawwassen Town Centre Mall located at 1229 56 Street, Delta. The temporary library can be found in a southwest corner storefront (near Joe's Market).

Tsawwassen Library staff are thrilled to welcome customers to the Pop-Up location to pick up holds, place holds, return items, browse a limited collections of materials to borrow, sit and read/mingle, attend scheduled programs, or just swing by to say hi and enjoy light refreshments. Public computing and Internet will be unavailable, however the friendly staff can assist customers with their information needs.

"We've only been open a few hours and have already heard from many customers telling us how excited they are to have a Pop-Up Library while they wait for Tsawwassen Library to reopen," says Heather Scoular, Director of Customer Experience for FVRL.
